High school life in black and white

A Day In The Life of a Student

This student starts with some water

He enjoys his free time at lunch

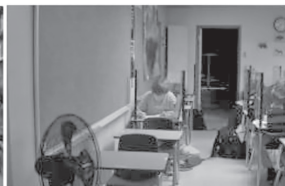

Then washes his hands before class

He talks to his teacher about work

Next he studies for the class by reading

Finally, he is ready for his test

MSMS staff gets treated to smoothies!

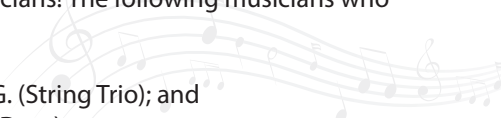

Thank you to PAC, PHC and Nutrition Services for the smoothies!

We are so lucky to be spoiled by your thoughtfulness and hard work. We appreciate all you do!

Mustang musicians an octave above the rest

Six of our band and orchestra students participated in the CHSAA Solo and Ensemble festival. All students received a 1 or Superior rating which is the top rating awarded to musicians! The following musicians who participated include:

- Ella B. (Solo Violin);
- Lauren B., Dana G. and Liam G. (String Trio); and
- Anton A. and Logan A. (Brass Duet)

MSMS chilly greetings

Students and staff were greeted by penguins Tuesday, Feb. 2, at the middle school after a snow day and 2-hour delay!

MSES checks up on the creek

Mrs. Mussi's fifth grade students went to Memorial Park in Manitou to do outdoor science games and to check on the status of Fountain Creek. Look who they found along the way ... Mrs. Dunlap!

Important date: No school Feb. 15, for Presidents Day.
